AN
is due, and is hereby made, to those of J. Brown's clients who were kept waiting for their winter clothes.
Never, in the annals of High-Class Tailoring, has such a rush been experienced as that at Piedad 513 (Terms: Cash) during the last two months.
However, in order that the same delay may not occur again, and to cope with the demands of his important and rapidly growing connection, J. Brown's premises are at the present time undergoing extensive alterations and the staff will shortly be DOUBLED.
A Ladies' Department is being added, in which special attention will be given to Habits and Tailor-made jackets.
Finally the stock, the whole of which is imported direct from the best West of England and Scotch Houses, will be increased in the same proportion, and will each season comprise the very latest London Novelties.

When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.

If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.

A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TELEGRAMS

(To the "Prensa".)

London, 22nd.—Mr. Gladstone is said to have stated in a letter that for his part he would dissolve the new Parliament after the settlement of the Home Rule question, without carrying out the other measures of the Newcastle programme. In an interview with the Anti-Parnellite leaders he insisted on the Irish factions uniting. Mr Gladstone, moreover, stated that he wished to be certain of the opinions of the Anti-Parnellites, as he intended to oppose them in his Midlothian campaign.

Chicago, 27th.—The Democratic Convention, in their programme, promise to reduce Government expenditure, taxation, and Customs dues. They consider reciprocity as a delusion. They advocate free coinage of gold and silver, both having the same value for the payment of debts. They express their sympathy with Irishmen and their efforts for Home Rule. They declare their intention of restricting immigration. They declare protection to be an economic fraud.

It seems that Cleveland will be defeated.

London, 22nd.—Telegrams from San Pablo de Loando, capital of the Portuguese colony of Angola, East Africa, report that a strong party of Boers invaded the settlement and proclaimed a republic.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, in an address to the Birmingham constituents, opposes Home Rule on Radical principles.

At a meeting in Lord Brassey's house it was decided to erect an observatory in Jamaica in honor of Christopher Columbus.

Some agitation is observable in the stock market.

Paris 22nd. It is stated that the manager of the Dynamite Factory has disappeared. There is a defalcation of five million francs.

New York 22nd. The Irish Committee appointed to mediate between the contending factions embarked to day.

(To the "Nacion.")

Berlin, 22nd.—The streets and balconies are being adorned for the reception of the King and Queen of Italy; and their welcome will be enthusiastic. There will be a review of troops at Potsdam.

London, 22nd.—Argentine securities are rising again, owing to the denial given to the Standard telegrams about the reduction of interest on the Foreign Debt.

Madrid, 22nd.—The telegraph clerks have struck.

Chicago, 22nd.—The probabilities are that Cleveland will be elected Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

BREAKING UP.

Every day brings fresh evidence that the Federal system is going to pieces. One day it is the Province of Santa Fé defying the Federal Courts and insulting the National Government, another it is the Comisarios of Cordoba confiscating the grain of the colonists to levy "black-mail", a third it is the Legislature of Entre Rios imposing export-dues on national products, a fourth it is the Governor of Buenos Ayres inventing a tax on Federal Railways in spite of the concessions passed by Congress, a fifth it is the Government of La Plata decapitating the judicial authorities of the province.

In a word the Federal system is fast running into anarchy of the worst kind. In the days of the Thirty Tyrants the people of Athens suffered incalculable woes, from which they were ultimately delivered by a supreme effort of patriotism. Before long the 14 provinces of Argentina will be the prey of 14 tyrants, unless the Congress and Federal Tribunal come to the rescue.

It would be too long now to examine the causes that have wrecked the Federal system. The only question is whether Congress and the Supreme Federal Tribunal possess the ability and power to revive it, or whether the republic is to be allowed to fall into a thousand pieces before any effort is made in that direction, or else to establish the Unitarian system that prevails in France, Chile and Uruguay.

This is a matter in which every Argentine who has at heart the welfare of his country ought to take the warmest interest. We do not pretend to offer advice as to the merits of the two systems. Both are good in their way, but it is necessary that the National Magna Charta be respected and enforced. At present it is turned into a disgraceful burlesque. If Congress, in its wisdom, resolve to stand by the Federal form of Republic some steps should be at once taken to carry out the Constitution and punish those provincial authorities who treat with contempt the edicts of the Federal Court.

But if the national legislators consider that the Federal system of Government is shewn to be utterly impossible, and may lead to a disintegration of the Republic, the best course to pursue would be to summon a national Convention, for the reform of the Constitution on the Unitarian model.

Nothing more deplorable than the present condition of affairs can be imagined. Four provinces openly defy the Judicial authorities specially provided by the Constitution for the protection of the lives and properties of the people. The other provinces will not be slow to follow, if such rebellion be not promptly put down.

We are in the midst of a new crisis, possibly more severe than the financial and monetary one from which we have been so long suffering. Congress represents the combined power and authority of the Republic, and if that power and authority be not exercised in defence of the Constitution the lamentable consequences that must ensue will be soon apparent.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

LORD SALISBURYS TOBACCO JOB.

(From our own Correspondent.)

May 27th.

Had I five shilling about me I would have gone to day to the horticultural exhibition at Earl's Court. The band of the Garde Republicaine will be there, and the finest girls of the finest of fine worlds will be there to listen. The flower show is international. Nothing like it will be seen in this century and part of the next. Orchids, ferns, palms, roses and every valued flower that Europe can boast at this season will be there. Never mind, one can see it all to-morrow for a bob; and will not the rose smell as sweet and the orchids be as waxy to shilling as to five shilling senses? They say not. I am beginning to believe they are right. Diplomatists, for example, tell us there is no sight in the world to equal a London Foreign Office reception. The salons are indeed splendid, and so are the marble staircases, but there are finer elsewhere. Then why is the London reception to be preferred? Sly newspaper reporters who are permitted in virtue of their tittle-tattling office to stand behind the statuary and ferns on these staircases inform us why. The steps are trodden by a procession of the "highest in the land"; and the highest in this land of health and beauty where diamonds lend no lustre and where cosmetics only disfigure. "Shilling day!" No, "not me," as Mr. Lycett Green observed in the Tranby Croft case. No Wagner or Maseagni for me, unless the sharps and flats, like a shower of jewels, rain on birth and beauty about me, and shade from my sight the horrors of amphitheatres and upper boxes. No flower shower for me, unless I find myself surrounded by bright eyes that like the pyramids can boast of centuries in their gaze, and are filled with that magic light over-felt and indefinable, of high birth. I beg n to think I would not give twopence to go to an F. O. reception, unless I could see there Lord Salisbury himself, the living representative of historical England, the champion of her old nobility and of individual interests. Poor man, he was upset in his carriage in St. Jamse's Street yesterday and it took several by-standers to lug him through the window. Fortunately he was unhurt. Even his coachman got off with a few cuts and bruises; and conservative papers make much of the fact that when his own individual interests were secure and before he drove off in a cab, our noble premier actually asked after his coachman and ordered him to be attended to. The Marquis of Salisbury needs at this moment any little sympathy that can be aroused in his favour even by a carriage accident. There is an ugly Persian tobacco business on hand. It was mentioned in the House last night. The Times this morning just alludes to it as a 'trumpery topic'. The Pall Mall Gazette has got it writ large. It appears to be shortly this: Two relatives of Lord Salisbury's, Talbot by name, obtained from the Shah of Persia a 'concession'—I can hear you saying in Buenos Ayres "Now, we know where we are." Well, these men, Major A. C. Talbot and Major G. H. Talbot, are brothers. The first named is Her Majesty's political agent in Persia, and as any high-bred conservative and supporter of the Liberty and Property Defence Association would do, he put his brother into a really good thing and 'stuck' the Shah. On May 3rd., the concession a tobacco monopoly—for which nothing had been paid was sold by the Eastern Concessions Syndicate to the Tobacco Corporation of Persia for £300,000. On the same day the sale was made, a prospectus was issued asking the public to subscribe, the capital being £650,000. Out of a capital of £650,000 and for which £300,000 had been given, a return was promised to those who took shares of £371,000 per annum or over 100 per cent on the capital really expended. The Persian Government found that the people of Persia were indignant at this concession, believing that its effect would be to raise the price of tobacco more than 100 per cent to the consumer in Persia. When the people in Persia almost rebelled against this concession, the Shah reconsidered the matter and determined to abrogate it. Now came in the intervention of Her Majesty's Government. The Corporation asked for £650,000 and then said they would be satisfied with £500,000, and Her Majesty's representative at Teheran used his good offices and advised the Shah to pay the £500,000. The sum offered by the Shah was £300,000, and according to what Mr. Labouchere makes out, the corporation had only expended £150,000 in Persia, although they had expended a great deal in salaries, and could only show assets in Persia worth less than £100,000. The Shah, who would have to pay £500,000, would receive buildings and tobacco which the corporation itself suggested were worth £100,000.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Seymour Keay and Mr. Winterbotham did not mince matters in alluding to the subject and spoke of the——Alas! for the historic glories of the hundred years war—as "robbers who had got the English foreign office at their backs."

Mr. Lowther's reply on the part of the Government was, that having been asked to intervene by the tobacco corporation, they suggested to the Persian Government the desirability of submitting the question to arbitration, but the Persian Government, for reasons of their own which they had not disclosed, preferred to make the offer of £500,000 taking over all the assets. It was said to be an extraordinary thing that the amount had increased from £300,000 to £500,000, after the intervention of Her Majesty's representatives. The proposal, however, was that £300,000 should be paid and that the Corporation should retain all their assets valued at £150,000.

There the question remains for the present. Meanwhile, I have decided not to go to the horticultural exhibition this afternoon, and to wait for the shilling day to-morrow. If instead of the "creme de la creme" one met all the city, one could scarcely meet worse people than "robbers." I have also withdrawn my name from the Liberty and Property Defence Association.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

According to our La Plata exchanges, the quiet and unobtrusive inhabitants of that enchanted capital have been thrown into a commotion bordering on political consternation by the suppression of the Court of Appeal there. The measure was so quickly planned, discussed and executed that the Platenses have not yet recovered from their surprise. The Bill suppressing the Court in question was presented by Government to the Chambers on Tuesday. The honourable representatives decided to send it to Committee, and the next day the bill was inserted in the order of the day, discussed and passed. Such legislative haste would in itself be quite sufficient to cause general surprise, and the circumstance of this haste being connected with so serious a question, as the suppression of the Court of Appeal has created quite a commotion. In political circles the measure has provoked countless comments and conjectures. For our part we simply record the step as an illustration of what speed the provincial legislature may attain under given circumstances. We may, however, give the official reasons for the suppression of the Court.

1.—The existence of the Courts of Appeal, (it is the 1st Court of Appeal that has been suppressed) involves an incongruity, as sometimes the two Courts deliver different sentences in identical cases, it being impossible to render jurisprudence uniform.

2.—There is not a sufficient number of cases for two courts.

3.—It is preferable to increase the number of Courts of 1st Instance. One of our exchanges shews that these reasons are by no means sufficiently cogent to explain so sudden and so grave a measure. In the first place there is a law which prohibits contradictory sentences.

Advices from Cordoba state that the Chief Accountant of the Province has drawn up a report shewing that the debt of Cordoba has risen from $250,000 in 1877 to 122 millions, the annual amortization being $9,778,900. The yearly expenditure is $14,887,000, including a 6% guarantee on the Cruz del Eje Railway. The revenue is $14,192,000. The report, which will no doubt be published, contains much interesting information in regard to expenditure.

CHILIAN FINANCES.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

(From the 'Chilian Times'.)

Valparaiso, June 4th.

Congress was on Wednesday opened by President Montt in person, and the following synopsis of His Excellency's speech will be found of interest.

H. E. commences by stating that the foreign relations of the Republic are on a very satisfactory footing, and after a passing reference to the Baltimore affair, he expresses the hope that it will be 'satisfactorily terminated, in harmony with international justice and with the friendship that has ever existed between the two nations'. These remarks of the President refer, of course, to the question of indemnity.

In return for the recognitionby Bolivia of the Junta as belligerents, a treaty of peace and friendship, intended definitely to terminate the indefinite truce of 1874, was celebrated with that country.

The difficulty which arose between the Chilian and Argentine Boundary Commissioners with respect to the meaning of the first clause of the Boundary Treaty, was temporarily surmounted by a mixed commission being sent to fix the limits in the Copiapó Andes, and another to perform the same operation in Tierra del Fuego. The labours of the commissions have been suspended for the winter season to be resumed in the spring. The belief is expressed that no further difficulties will arise in connection with the delimitation of the two Republics, but if unfortunately there should, their settlement by arbitration is provided for.

Financial causes will render necessary a reduction in the number of diplomatic agents abroad, but it is believed that this step will not in any way affect unfavourably the foreign relations of the country.

It is proposed to sell a large area of ground in Araucania, which will be the source of a large revenue for several years. The organisation of a police in that territory is insisted upon, and attention is directed to the defective condition of this branch of the public service throughout all the Republic.

To promote the welfare of the working classes H. E. recommends the creation of Post-Office Savings Banks.

Many schools were closed during the Dictatorship and public education suffered generally, but most of these institutions are again in working order and the enrolment of scholars has been satisfactory. Secondary instruction has undergone a radical change this year owing to the introduction of the 'concentric system," which has been adopted now only, although it was ordered to be established three years ago.

The army, although under the authorised strength of 6000 men, represents from its reorganisation, its discipline and instruction a relatively considerable force. A general staff has taken the place of the former 'Inspection-General of the Army.

The navy, nothwithstanding the heavy work imposed upon it by the campaign of 1891, is in an effective condition. It has been reinforced by the torpedo-catchers Almirante Condell and Almirante Lynch, and by the cruiser Presidente Errazuriz, and it will soon be further strengthened by the Presidente Pinto, now on her way out, and by the ironclad Capitan Prat, of 7000 tons, which will be launched about the end of the year.

Work has been suspended on some of the railways, and on others it is being carried on at a reduced speed.

The revenue in 1890 amounted to 58,583,596 dollars.

In 1891 the Junta's offices in Iquique received 11,880,120 dollars.

In the same year the Dictatorship disposed of 70,031,126 dollars. Of this sum 29,963,784 dollars corresponds to the issue of notes and the expropriation of a part of the Bank's issue.

It is estimated that the revenue for the current year will reach 59,563,000 dollars. To this must be added the sum of 2,000,000 dollars, which is the estimated increase on the export duty on nitrate and iodine owing to a low exchange, and 1,000,000 dollars estimated increase on the revenue from the railways, making in all a total revenue of 62,563,000 dollars.

The authorized expenditure for the current year is 63,037,456 dollars. But to this sum there must be added 2,000,000 dollars for loss on exchange, and 2,400,000 dollars for obligations contracted last year, making in all 67,437,456 dollars. Of this sum 4,500,000 dollars will not be expended, owing to the stop page prin cipally, of public works, and, therefore, the expenditure for the year will be reduced to 62,937,456 dollars, which is an excess of 374,456 dollars over income.

On December 31, 1891, there was owing to the banks, 8,900,000 dollars. On the same date there were owing debts for 5,000,000 dollars, towards the payment of which a sum of 2,000,000 dollars is provided in the current Estimates. To the payment of this debt of 11,900,000 dollars there has been applied the balance in the Treasuries on December 31st. amounting to 2,047,000 dollars, and 10,500,000 dollars obtained from the banks in account current. There is then

The account current in the Banks	$10,500,000
Treasury Bills, issued for the withdrawal of part of the Dictatorial issue	9,500,000
Balance of the Dictatorial issue.....	11,999,107
	$31,995,107

This sum may be increased to 41,365,807 if Congress should resolve that the expropriation by the Dictator of 9,380,700 dollars of the banks' issue is a debt of the State.

The State will have abundant resources for the payment of this debt. During this and next year it will receive from the sale of public lands in Araucania, in Valparaiso, and on both banks of tho Mapocho not less than 10,000,000 dollars.

Out of this extraordinary revenue the defict of the current year of upwards of 300,000 dollars can be met, and by cancelling the Treasury Bills, or by making payments to the account current of the Banks, the floating debt at the middle of 1893 will be reduced to 22,396,563 dollars 25 cents, or to 31,749,826 dollars 50 cents in the event of Congress accepting the amount taken from the Banks as a debt of State.

The estimated expenditure for 1893 is 51,000,000 dollars, and the estimated revenue 65,000,000 dollars, which will leave a surplus of 14,000,000 dollars to applied to the reduction of the Floating Debt, which will stand of December 31st, 1893, at 16,000,000 dols., which may be totally extinguished by the end of 1894, or, at any rate, reduced to an insignificant sum.

Therefore if the revenue should not go on increasing in 1895 and 1896 which is unlikely, there will be an accumulated surplus of 25,000,000 dollars, which may be applied to Public Works, or as Congress may see fit.

The sale of the Government nitrate properties which are situated between or among private properties is strongly recommended, "because it is not advisable that they should remain any longer in the possession of the State."

With respect to the resumption of specie payments, the President says a Bill will be presented to Congress fixing July 1st, 1895, as the date for this to take effect.

H. E. proposes to increase the duties to 55 per cent. on articles not of primary necessity, and to reduce the duties on those of primary necessity.

The Banks' issue registered in the Treasury amounts to	19,313,448
The authorised fiscal issue to	19,867,261
The Dictatorial issue, minus the 7,500,000 dollars being actually withdrawn from circulation, to.....	11,995,107
Total in circulation ...	51,175,819

According to the laws now in force the Banks have power to issue notes payable to bearer to an amount equal to their effective capital, and they are required to guarantee a part only of this issue. This privilege accorded to the Banks is prejudicial to the Fiscal notes, and it is proposed to levy a tax on these issues and to restrict the amount of them.

The President believes that it might be advantageous to celebrate free trade treaties with South American nations, not producers of the same articles as Chile; and finally, he recommends Congress to pass the Bill providing for the payment of the duties on nitrate and iodine in ninety days' bills on London.

THE HOSPITALS OF BUENOS AYRES

(From the "River Plate Review.")

Peep into the "conventillos" of Buenos Ayres—our "slums." There dwells one-fifth of the Buenos Ayres population. Over one hundred thousand beings are crowded into three thousand of these fusty, dirty "conventillos." Eight hundred and sixty-six "conventillos" have an average of three persons per room; two hundred and thirty-six shelter four persons per room. What a condensation of humanity! For such a city hospitals are a paramount necessity. Public safety decrees the removal of the infected sick from these dense concentrations of humanity. Private charity stretches forward its hand to succour the poor, helpless sick.

Thus there are fourteen hospitals in this city—five conducted and supported by foreign communities.

In the year 1890 as many as 21,415 persons entered these hospitals, 2,880 of whom died.

That more than 21,000 persons, that nearly 4 per cent of the population, should have had occasion to become inmates of the hospitals of Buenos Ayres is an astonishing fact, and can perhaps be largely explained by the small degree of comfort in which so large a proportion of our population lives. But it accentuates the importance of the role played by hospitals in our social economy.

During the five years, 1887 to 1891 inclusive, 84,882 persons became inmates of the hospitals, of whom 10,656 persons, or 12¼ per cent. died.

Examining the mortality it is seen that of 22,402 Argentine patients 15 per cent died, and of the 62,280 foreign patients 11 per cent. The difference in the mortality of the two classes of patients is very great, and would induce one to believe that the Argentines were constitutionally weaker than the foreigners who make this country their home. A review of the death rate of the whole city in 1887, according to the Municipal statistics, establishes the fact that the mortality amongst the Argentine population was 42 per 1000, whilst the foreigners escaped with a mortality of only 18 per 1000.

It would not be safe in the case of the general mortality (as distinct from the hospital mortality) to draw precipitate conclusions concerning the physique of the two populations from the demographic statistics; and since the peoples in question are not to be compared as under equal conditions as regards age, owing to the large recent arrivals of able-bodied foreigners, and also since there is included of course the fearful infantile mortality, and therefore a large proportion of children born of foreign parents.

In the case, however, of the hospital mortality these considerations do not apply, as the infants did not die in the hospitals but in their homes, and there is no reason to suppose that the average age of the Argentine patients was materially different from that of the foreign patients.

In the following table is given the mortality that took place in the principal hospitals during the last five years, amongst the Argentines and foreigners respectively.

	Argentines. Per cent.	Foreigners. Per cent.
Rivadavia...	16	9
Clinicas	11	9
San Roque..	12	11
San Luis....	16	15
Crónicos....	17	15
Rawson	20	15
Aislamiento	39	26
Foreign (5)	9	9

The five foreign hospitals have been grouped together, as the number of Argentine patients entering these Is relatively small, and a fair average could not have been secured otherwiae.

In well-conducted English hospitals the mortality is about 6 to 7 per cent of the patients entering.

In looking over the table it will be seen that in every case the Argentine mortality is greater than that of the foreigners. In some cases, such as the Rivadavia, Rawson Hospitals, and the Casa de Aislamiento, the difference is notable. Possibly the death-rate in Argentine hospitals may be capable of reduction when improvements in hospital regulations are introduced.

THE ARGENTINE BOOM.

The Stock Market has good cause to be thankful to the Argentine boom. It started a movement which seems to be extending to every other department, and is causing the first real activity that the House has enjoyed this year. For these and other obvious reasons it would be a pity if anything were to go wrong with the Argentine boom. There has been such a danger for some time past, and early in the week it became very pronounced. A much healthier market than Argentine securities are likely to be for a long time to come could not stand the pace at which they are now being driven up. Yesterday the 1886 Loan momentarily touched 75, and the Funded Loan was down at 66. They are not sober speculators who catch on in that foolish way to a market already top-heavy. They are evidently in blissful ignorance of all the elementary facts affecting the stocks thus dealt in. They cannot be aware that within the past fortnight both the 1886 bonds and the Funded might have been bought ten points lower. Still less can they suspect what Argentine securities have yet to go through before their future value can be even roughly estimated.

At present Argentines are in a transition state, and the official description they bear is entirely misleading. The Funded are nominally six per cent bonds and the 1886's are five per cents, but in less than two years they will both be on a decidedly lower level. They may be three per cents or even less, and, till it has been decided to what extent they must be scaled down, a risk will hang over them which ought to be prudently discounted. It is, however, being utterly ignored.

Such a boom can only end in one way. It is only the foolish and the ignorant who speculate in defiance of facts. Intelligent people know that this movement has already overshot the facts which were supposed to have originated it. Its first cause was a notable decline in the gold premium.

In themselves these recent declines in the gold premium are very encouraging, but until it is seen what amount of stability there may be in them, they do not justify any wild whoop up in Argentine stocks, least of all in those which have nothing to depend on but the accidents of ricketty political machinery. After all, the essential question to ask regarding such stocks is what the Argentine Redublic could pay on them in hard cash. Just now it rubs along with the help of a gigantic process of bill renewing. Less than one-third of its foreign obligations are being paid out of revenue. In little more than a year hence it will have to resume payment not only of the two-thirds at present in suspense, but on the fifteen millions sterling of new debt which has been funded in the interval. What is the position to be then? No one dreams of full resumption of payment. It is bound to be partial, and whether it is to be a large or a small part depends on what other political or financial trouble may happen before the Moratorium expires. Last year the outlook was very depressing in both respects. This year it has happily improved, but the market may very easily overrate the improvement.

At the end of the Moratorium the National Government will require from five and three-quarter millions to six millions sterling for the annual service of its debt, including railway guarantees. That is equal to thirty million gold dollars, which, at the present value of gold would cost one hundred million dollars in paper. According to the Standard correspondent the customs receipts from 1st January to 9th May amounted to twenty-eight million dollars paper, and in the event of their being maintained at the same rate to the end of the year they might produce in all seventy-eight and a-half million dollars. Stamps and miscellaneous receipts may yield fifteen or sixteen million dollars. The outside estimate of the year's revenue that can be safely made is ninety-five million dollars. At least one-half of it will be required for the internal administration of the country, and the best that the Argentine Government could offer to its creditors would be ten shillings in the pound.

When the Argentine Treasury resumes cash payments it will do well if it can raise for the bondholders fifty cents on the dollar all round.

CRISTOBAL AGUIRRE.

Another model citizen has been gathered to the majority. Don Cristoba Aguirre died on Wednesday. His name is in a way identified with the history of our credit and finances. He began his career as an employee in the Custom House and steadily worked himself up to the highest posts. He became Minister of Finance under Mitre and Sarmiento. He was aftewards director of revenue. He was a man of great energy, perseverance and uprightness. As a citizen he shone by his austerity. He was an enemy of all vain ostentation and fulfilled his duties in silence. He was known for his charity. Like Mariano Billinghurst and Miguel Esteves Sagui, he was in a word a model citizen.

In view of his numerous services to the State, the National Government has decreed that the expenses of his funeral shall be paid by the State Treasury.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

We note that Messrs Pelleschi and Company have asked Government to collect the coupons of the securities deposited by them as guarantee for the fulfilment of their railway contract.

The Inspector-General, in a sweetly short report has advised Government to accept the plans of the proposed improvements at the Tigre station.

CONGRESS.

The state of siege was again the subject of discussion in the Chamber of Deputies on Wednesday. Dr. Balestra, Minister of Justice, replied to the phenominally long speech delivered at the previous sitting H. E. defended the acts and attitude of Government. He began by stating that the debate was a national solemnity, but that there was really no divergency as to the future, since all were agreed that the state of siege should be raised, and as a matter of fact the state of siege had been raised de facto. It was only a state of siege in name. Liberty had always been a fruitful theme in the Argentine Parliament. H. E. alluded to the eloquence of Sarmiento, Rawson, Goyena and other great orators. He went out of his way to pay a compliment to Dr. Magnasco, a new orator, whose eloquence had resounded in the remotest corners of the republic. H. E. then began to examine the question at issue. He alluded to the debate on the occasion of the declaration of the state of siege in 1865, during the Paraguayan war. He gave the derivation of the phrase "state of siege." He explained the phrase from every legal point of view. Sarmiento in 1876 maintained that the state of siege was a preventive. In the United States they had a state of siege during four years. In Europe the state of siege was unusual. Zorrilla thundered against Spanish monarchy but from the shores of France. Turning to another question H. E. deplored the absence of Radical deputies: it was the fault of the electoral law; minorities did not get representation. Some years ago he had presented a bill giving representation to minorities. The present law was an Argentine injustice. H. E. concluded as follows:—In a few days we shall abandon our seats in the cabinet to return to the ranks of the people, and to-morrow you may enforce what to-day you censure. For my part, I may say with the French statesman, "if I have made a mistake, I made it out of love for my country." H. E. was warmly applauded and even embraced.

The debate will be resumed to-day.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Everybody who could speak English, even with a Timbuctoo accent, and thousands who couldn't speak a word of the Language of the Future, speaks of the great success of the Hospital Bazaar, the beauty of the stalls and the fair keepers thereof, the excellent music, and the large receipts that poured in on the first night—$31,000. Yesterday afternoon there were a great many ladies in the hall, and they all left some cash behind them. The few gentlemen present said that the fancy dresses of the stall-keepers did not look so well by daylight as in the blaze of the Electric Light. At night the Bazaar was again largely attended.

We have to thank Mr. Charles Abbee Holt, the popular manager of the La Porteña Insurance Company, for his kind donation of $100 to the British Hospital Bazaar.

The Senate met yesterday. Dr. Roque Saenz Peña took the oath. The Committee informed favorably on the diploma of Sr. C. Figueroa, Senator for Catamarca. Senators Varela and Figueroa presented a Bill regarding the Pension Law. Dr. J. Igarzabal obtained permission to accept the nomination of "Vocal" of the Obras de Salubridad. The Chamber retired for half an hour in private session, to discuss a secret message from the Executive.

There was no further news yesterday about the patriotic scuffle in Rio Grande. Telegraph wires cut.

There was a spontaneous crowd at the Darsena yesterday morning, and the Radical leaders were loudly cheered on landing. Dr. Alem's house was crowded all day, especially with ladies, who all kissed him, and he seemed to like it. We should think so. There was a mild scuffle in the street between the police and some young Civicos who cheered for Dr. Alem.

A splendid programme has been issued for the races to-day in Belgrano, the principal event on the card being a "Handicap Libre", which has excited a good deal of interest in sporting centres all through the week, and promises to bring out a large field. Our selections for the various events are—

Premio Folio—Misterio.
" Brandy Snap—Infernal.
Hanicap Libre—Gettatore or Zangano.
Premio Midi—Araza or Canotiere.
" Puxi—Nubifer or Emperor.
" Satanella—Satanella.

The cold yesterday morning before the sun settled down to his daily work was more bitter than bitter ale: and the thermometer marked four degrees below zero. All day long there was a frosty wind that made noses as red as tomatoes. Wiggins, the weather prophet, says that King Frost has come to stay.

The following teams play association football to-day at Belgrano:—Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway—A Ferrer, goal; W Williams and F Boyd, backs; J E Francis, J Goodwin and J Boyd, half-backs; G A Halsall, W H Ruston, W Fraser, P McCarthy and H J Scharenberg, forwards. St. Lawrence (Belgrano)—J McKechnie, goal; Reynolds and Reynolds, backs; H Buxton, E Shaw and Ibettson, half-backs; F Enright, Rios, Rios and J Pott, forwards. Kick off at 2 p.m.

The Belgrano Polo Club will play a practice game to-day on their own ground at 2 p.m., and all members are specially requested to turn up sharp to time. On Sunday next the game will be Mr. Balfour's team versus Mr. England's team, also to commence at 2 o'clock.

Sport and Pastime sent round another beautiful lithograph of the "Cruise of the Dart" with its last number. Our colleague says that the Foot-ball game at Hurlingham to-day will be one of the sensational matches of the season, and from the names of the players will be sure to be a tough one, so it is to be hoped that there will be a good attendance of spectators to witness it. The game will commence at 2.30 p.m. Another Rugby game well worth seeing will be that between the Buenos Aires and Hurlingham Clubs, at Hurlingham, next Sunday. The following are the teams:—England and Ireland: Messrs. J. Crowfield Captain), F. E. Jones, F. H. Jacobs, A. E. Tucker, P. Permain, G. A. Thomson, M. F. Gildersdale, G. C. Kennard, A. Magne, J. Earnshaw, Power, Rath, C. Kennard, G. Thornton and H. Cornwall. Scotland and Wales—Messrs. F. Bennett (Capt.), F. W. Fothergill, A. Anderson, W. E. Coubrough, W. A. Forbes, J. M. Lees, G. S. Anderson, F. Corry Smith, L. Corry Smith, A. G. Goodfellow, E. T. Kinch, E. W. Hanney, J. D. Frost, H. Mohr Bell and C. W. Cumming. The trains leave Central Station at 1.15 p.m. and visitors can return at 4.38 or 5.46 p.m. The English and Irish team will wear white jerseys and their opponents blue jerseys.

The Chilians are again showing their grit. Vigilance Committees are being formed all over the Transandine republic, to wipe out the hordes of banditi that are swarming in all parts; so we shall soon have the pleasure of reporting a little Lynching on the other side of the mighty Andes. Would that the people of this country might imitate our Chilian neighbours in their new departure against murder and robbery.

There is general regret in Montevideo at the resignation of the Finance Minister, Dr. Ramirez, one of the ablest and all-round best statesmen poor B. O. possesses.

An evening colleague continues to harp on the noquorumania (nice new word that even Cousin Jonathan could not beat in his efforts to level up Shakespeare's tongue) of the National Senate, and is uncomplimentary enough to compare that august body to a camp Municipality! The Senators themselves say that they don't see either the fun or utility of meeting often few when there are "asuntos entrados" to discuss.

We beg to thank Mr. Julio Mitau for his kind donation of $20 to the British Hospital Bazaar Fund, through Mr. Federico Gelmer.

Mr. Sotomayor, of the well-known Portuguese 'libreria' in Calle Esmeralda, kindly sent us yesterday, for the British Hospital Bazaar, ten rare specimens of Postage Stamps, worth, he says, forty francs. No doubt, the Bazaar Committee will get far more than this for them in a raffle.

There is a grand charitable ceremony at Flores to day, when the foundation-stone of the new asylum about to be erected by those good ladies, Hermanas de los Desamparados, will be laid. The site is in Calle Rivadavia, between Pereyra and Meyer. We thank Señora T. L. de Darquier, President of the Society for her kind invitation to attend the interesting ceremony.

The vegetable crisis in Montevideo is over, and the strikers are completely floored. At least so we gather from the Mount papers. The Director of the Central Market telegraphed all over the country for supplies, which were sent in enormous quantities, and the Municipality sold them at half price; and the strikers were stricken.

The following by no means bad story must have sprung from the brain and pen of a whisky distiller:—"The story is told of a certain temperance lecturer who threw upon his screen the micro-organisms in a drop of water. Then on the slide he placed a minute portion of whisky. Instantly it put a quietus on all that swarming life. About to make his point, a voice from the rear shouted: "I'll never take another drink of water without a drop of whisky in it."

Our sporting subscribers will be sorry to hear that Mr. S. Radcliffe, the well-known trainer and rider, met with an accident in Rio, which, though not serious, will bar him from sporting silk for some time. We see by O Sport of June 10th that his horse, Lucero II., by Rostrevor out of Night-Thought, to[k] off two races at one meeting, the distan[ce] being 1200 and 1750 metres respectively carrying top-weight, 56 kilos, in the [la]st effort. The starting prices were m[ost] remunerative, and as the owner fanc[ied] his horse, there can be little doubt ab[out] the stable money being on. Luc[ero] ran several times in the races here, [but] never did anything worthy of note. T[he] change of air has evidently proved [be]neficial.

Oh! The latest news from lear[ned] Cordoba is tearful. Terrible "irre[gu]larities" are laid at the door of Governor Garzon's Government; Governor Pizarro has ordered [a] thousand copies of Mr Thiriot's re[port] on the matter to be published and d[is]tributed all over the Republic.

An association match will take pl[ace] to-day 24th instant, behind S[outh] Works, between the St. Andrew's [and] XI. and the B. A. Band of Hope 1st St. Andrew's:—Goal Wilson; ba[cks] Monte, Anderson; ½ backs, Schae[fer] Frost, Brown; forwards, T. Bridge, [J.] Perkins, R. Brooking; (Captain) Bridge Scorey. B. A. Band of Hope Goal, Hesselgrave; backs, Cooke; (C[ap]tain) McCarthy; ½ backs, Allen, J. S[co]geon, H. Jordon; forwards, Mitch[ell] Holden, Wilson, Pitblado, Horton.

With a deep groan we learn from [our] invaluable sporting contemporary [that] the Argentine Horse has not yet [made] his mark in England, as Cedulas, [Ar]rante

ON 'CHANGE.

Thursday, 23rd June.

A wave of distrust swept over the market this morning and the gold premium rose, whilst stocks dropped. There is an ugly rumor that some parties are sparing no efforts to induce the National Government to refuse the public subscription for the capital of the Banco de la Nacion, on the plea that the subscription is insufficient, and to turn the Bank into a State concern, quite independent of the market. As this rumor spread from pillar to pillar an atmosphere of pessimism invaded the hall, and operators for the fall in gold turned round and bought; holders of Patriotic Bonds shook their heads and sold out; all the recent expectations of improvement and recovery vanished, and the whole market is again plunged in doubt and anxiety over the latest banking intrigue, which threatens to carry the situation back to the gloom forebodings of last year.

The market has a healthy dread of State banking after the dismal experience of the last three years. The National Bank and its branches, the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres, and the State Banks of the Interior are banking wrecks that stand as a warning of the baneful effects of a rotten system; it would be folly to go back to that system at a moment when the whole market is up in arms against the idea. It is understood that the President of the Republic is opposed to the idea of reducing the Banco de la Nacion to the category of a State Bank, but it is urged that the matter must go to Congress, where the fate of the Bank will be decided. There can be no doubt that a banking intrigue is at the bottom of the whole affair, and comments on the subject are varied, and in many instances not creditable to the brains of those who, most interested in the Bank, wish it to be a State Bank, for reasons that are kept in the background.

It may not be amiss to bear in mind that the so-called Conciliation party, headed by Generals Roca and Mitre, opposed the creation of the Banco de la Nacion from the beginning, on the ground that its State connection was baneful. It remains to be seen if the representatives of that party, the majority in Congress, will maintain the same aggressive attitude, now that a proposal is on foot to make the concern a State Bank. If the bank was, and is, objectionable in its present charter, it must be doubly so under the State's control; but as politics are now heavily involved in the question, some financial versatility may change the minds of the legislators and induce them to approve the change in the bank charter.

The most remarkable feature about this Banco de la Nacion is the apathy of the public in the subscription to the bank's capital. It remained with the public to rescue the bank from State control; yet, though the subscription to the shares was the best business in the market and promised handsome returns, from ignorance or ill-will the Argentine capitalists shunned the subscription and refused to give a dollar. Even foreigners shirked the subscription, and to-day we see the danger of the situation: we are rushing fast into a State bank with perhaps unlimited issues of paper-money, and that danger is now perplexing the market, creating distrust, and paving the way into another crisis similar to that of the end of last year.

When Congress takes up this banking question, we may be prepared to see numerous projects crop up to save the country from a scarcity of paper money, from restricted credit, and from the monopoly of private banking. The idea of a state bank is congenial to the habits and ideas of the Interior. In the Interior people would welcome the return of the old banking system that plunged them in a state of artificial prosperity for two years. The scarcity of paper money up country is an established fact, and the promise of cheap money may induce the legislators to provide a remedy in the creation of the state bank—the 'fons' and 'origo' of all our financial calamities.

The opinion on 'Change is reflected by a heavy rise in the gold premium; all the arguments in favor of a rise now acquire fresh force. The snag-up in produce, the advent of the dull winter months, the plight of Montevideo, the sinking exchange market, one, and all combine to help the bulls in their crusade. Nine thousand ounces only changed hands this morning; the demand was small, but prices rose rapidly: the rate opened at 50.90$ and closed at 51 20, say 214½% premium. Sovereigns closed at 15.85$, say the same premium as on ounces. The market closed with a firm feeling.

Subscribers to the Banco de la Nacion are rather perplexed at the rumors in the market. If the Government refuse to accept the subscription to the Bank's capital, the Patriotic Bonds sent in for subscription will be returned to the intending shareholders; it stands to reason that this operation will throw large amounts of the Patriotic stock on the market and put down prices. This disagreeable feature of the affair is not much relished in certain quarters; the effect is already seen in the quotation of the Patriotic Bonds, which were neglected to-day, falling to 67 for cash: the closing prices were 67¼ for cash 67.60 for the end of the month, and 66.40 for end of July. The market was heavy and very unsteady. Internal Bonds fell in sympathy to 61¼.

Even Catalinas suffered under the rumors rampant in the hall, and the shares closed tottering at 9.30. La Plata Cedulas were steady at 32.

Exchange ruled dull and weak. The drawing rates were:-- 47 5/16 to 47 ⅜d. on London.
4.96½ to 4.97 francs on Paris and France.
4.98 to 4.98½ fcs. on Antwerp.
4.03 mks. on Germany.

Discounts were easy at 6 to 7% per annum according to date. It is interesting to compare these rates with the rates paid by the banks on deposits. The banks do not care much to reduce the interest on deposits at the present moment: the fact is quite a feature in the situation and is commented on.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:--

Ounces--

Mr. Maschwitz's contract with the Deutsche Uebersee Bank lapses on the 31 Dec. of this year. Mr. Maschwitz retires from the management of the Bank at the end of the year. We remember well when the bank was started six years ago; the present manager founded it and managed it with care up to the present, and the market will regret his retirement. We may add that the profits of the Bank last year, in spite of crisis and banking difficulties the greatest ever known in this market, amounted to $96,000 gold, a very satisfactory return on the capital.

From the report of the Collector General of Excise for the year, run ing from May 1891 to May 1892, we extract the following :—

Bank and Joint-stock Companies.

On the 29th August last Y. E. gave instructions for the collection of taxes on banks and joint-stock companies ; notices were sent round to same and the inscription has been carried on with comparative regularity; the results of the collection up to date are as follows :—

Date of inscription.	Bank.	Capital.
Sept. 29	Anglo Argentine, £	500,000
" 30	London and River Plate, $ gold	2,500,000
Oct. 2	London and Brazilian, £	95,833
" 3	Aleman Transatlantico, marks	10,000,000
" 19	London and R. Plate (Rosario), $ gold.	1,250,000
Nov. 21	English of River Plate (do.)	—
Dec. 2	Do. do. (B. Ayres).	—
" 28	Sabadell, $ gold	100,000

of these the English Bank of the River Plate here and in Rosario is in liquidation ; the London and River Plate Bank in this city and the Anglo-Argentine Bank have suffered losses ; the Sabadell Bank has not completed a year's working ; and the three remaining have paid :

All the above payments represent 10 per cent on the respective profits.

Owing to the litigation going on in the Neuquen territory over the boundaries of private estates, the Governor of that territory has applied to the Minister of the Interior and to the Head of the Land and Colonies Office for a plan of the Neuquen with all the concessions and colonies allotted by the Executive.

The Land and Colonies Office has granted authority to Mr. Fernando Nitto to extract 1000 tons of yerba-maté from plantations covering four leagues of land in the Misiones territory.

The rise in gold put a spurt into produce business at the Plazas this morning. In the Plaza Constitucion twenty thousand bags of wheat were sold at 8 to 9⅛ per 100 kilos. Messrs. Dreyfuss Frères discharged and sold 5000 bags. Messrs. Ayarragaray and Capdepont sold another lot of 5000 bags. Great purchases of maize were also reported ; the arrivals of the corn at the Plaza Central exceeded 15,000 bags yesterday and to-day. Operations were reported at 5 30$ up-river and at 5.50 and 5.60$ per 100 kilos at the Rio Santiago. If the rise in gold continue, a lot of wheat and maize will go forward.

The Inspector-General of the Chicago Exhibition Committee has been invited by the well-known "barraquero," Mr. Donato Astrain, to inspect an important collection and classification of horse-hair of the most varied qualities from the South of the province : some of the samples are said to be unique and the collection is the finest in the country. Barraqueros Rivera y hijos have prepared a valuable collection of tails of Patagonian animals, of black, white and grey colours. Mr. Augusto Piard, who has a horse-hair factory in Almagro, will send many exhibits of his industry to Chicago also. Messrs. Duggan Brothers have also promised to send the best samples of horse hair from their numerous estancias. Messrs. Duggan, it may be remembered, obtained a silver medal for their exhibits of horse hair.

The Compañia de Mensajerias Fluviales of the Uruguay have promised to carry free of Charge all products for the Chicago Exhibition Committee. We have no doubt that the Platense company will do likewise.

Gold opened very firm at the second ring, but closed weak ; nine thousand ounces were sold for Saturday ; the price opened at 51.40$, rose to 51.60, and closed heavy at 51.20, say 21¼ % premium. Sovereigns closed at 15.95$, say 21⅝ % premium. Patriotic Bonds closed at 67 for Saturday and Internal Bonds at 61¼. La Plata Cedulas were dull and weak.

GOLD SUDDEN COLLAPSE
owing to the tremendous fall in the Price of Gold
THE
BANKRUPT STOCK EMPORIUM
78--SUIPACHA--78

Will now reduce their prices accordingly, as we consider that it is the proper way to do; we are surprised that the Grocers and Dry Goods houses will insist on holding to the old extravagant prices that they charged when Gold was over 400 per cent; the consequence is that they have to mourn over their goods day after day and wonder why the customers never come, instead of selling them cheaper and thus turn their stocks rapidly into cash. Our motto is the old adage namely: quick sales and small profits; we will not attempt to enumerate our immense variety of furniture and house furnishings at the present time, as they are simply myriad, but before you entangle yourselves by paying exorbitant prices for your household effects and then only for ordinary articles, kindly call and inspect our extensive assortment and save yourselves very much money, as we are constantly receiving fresh houses of furniture for sale at the Bankrupt Stock Emporium

Dear Sir,

We have read the notices, published by Mr. Boisot against the Company of which you are President, and have received several communications from him in reference to the License given to that Company some time ago, which he wanted us to annul ; but as we saw that his only object was to put difficulties in the path of that Company, we have not complied with his request. As the contract with Mr. Boisot has expired, we suppose that he cannot give you any further trouble on this or any other matter, relating to the Agency, and you are authorized to publish such notices, as will instruct the Public that Mr. Boisot is no longer an agent of this company.

Yours very truly

HORSFORDS PHOSPHATIC BAKING POWDER

BARON LIEBIG, the world renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind ! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.

What a wonderful result is this !"

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.
According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.
Directions for use
One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.

STEPHENS INKS
IMPORTANT NOTICE
Falsifications of Stephens well-known Blue Black Writing & Copying Fluids are now being sold in this town as the genuine inks. The original bottles which have contained Stephens' Inks are being refilled with the imitation and the trade-mark, labels and seal are very closely copied. The principal difference between the true and the forged label is that the lines and ornamentation in the red groundwork of the imitation are blurred and indistinct, instead of being sharp and clean as on Stephens' genuine labels. It is to be noted that the litre and half litre bottles of Stephens' genuine Inks have a patent cork attached consisting of a metarien with teeth into which a cork is fastened. The fraudulent bottles have no such cork. The fraudulent ink writes of a greenish blue colour and thickens in the inkstand very rapidly, whereas Stephens' genuine ink writes a strong blue colour and keeps perfectly fluid in the inkstand. Assist in the prevention of this fraud by destroying the bottles which have originally contained Stephen's genuine inks.
Stringent legal proceedings will at once be taken against all dealers selling the fraudulent inks
